UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

G.M., a minor, by and through AUDREY
GUARDANAPO and SHAUN
GUARDANAPO,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WASHOE COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT;;
KENDYL DEPOALI MIDDLE SCHOOL;
and JOYE ANCINA, in her official capacity
as Principal, Kendyl Depoali Middle School,

Defendants.

CASE NO.: 3:18-cv-00172-RCJ-WGC

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO EXTEND TIME TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINT

(first request)

COMES NOW, Defendants Washoe County School District, Kendyl Depoali Middle School, and Joye Ancina (“Defendants”) and Plaintiff G.M., a minor, by and through Audrey Guardanapo and Shaun Guardanapo (“Plaintiffs”) (hereinafter referred to, singularly as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties”), by and through their respective counsel, and hereby stipulate and agree, pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 6(b) and Civil Local Rules 6-1 and 7-1, to extend the deadline for Defendants’ answer or response to Plaintiff’s Complaint to July 18, 2018. This Stipulation is based on the following:

1 1. Plaintiff served his Complaint for Declaratory, Injunctive, or Other Relief
2 (“Complaint”) on Defendants on April 27, 2018.

3 2. Defendants currently have until May 18, 2018 to answer or respond to Plaintiff’s
4 Complaint.

5 3. Legal counsel for the Parties are actively engaged in resolution discussions.

6 4. The Parties agree that, due to ongoing resolution efforts, it is in the best interests
7 of all those involved to continue their efforts to reach an informal resolution of this matter.

8 5. The Parties agree and stipulate that it is in their mutual best interests to extend
9 the deadline for the Defendants’ answer or response to Plaintiff’s Complaint, as successful
10 resolution of this matter would obviate the need for further litigation.

11 6. The Parties agree that if settlement discussions are unsuccessful, it will be 12 necessary for the Parties to resume their litigation efforts. Thus, the Parties stipulate and agree
13 to extend the deadline for Defendants to answer or respond to Plaintiff’s Complaint through 14 and including to July 18, 2018.
